SEACREST BEACH, INLET BEACH, FL

Nestled between Rosemary Beach and Alys Beach, you will find this stunning new construction home in the master-planned community of Seacrest Beach with 1.3 miles of trails, an enormous resort style pool, and tram service to take you on a short drive to the pristine beaches. Impeccably designed by architect, J. Michael Hunnicutt, and constructed by Gary Bailey, this home is one of the largest in the community and it was meticulously crafted for you to enjoy luxury beach living while gathering with friends and family. Upon entering, the main floor welcomes you into a bright, airy living space with an alluring fireplace, charming wood beams, and elegant lighting. Two spacious master suites are located on the main and second floors with tiled showers and direct access to the porches. Venturing upstairs, you will find the den and two additional bedrooms with en suites to comfortably accommodate additional guests. The third floor offers a large entertainment area, excellent for a game room or a movie night. This home is a fabulous coastal retreat with 628 sq ft of expansive porches on 3 levels, beckoning you to relax outside around the private pool or to watch the breathtaking sunset in the evenings. The garage offers an abundant amount of storage for your vacation necessities and above the garage is an additional bonus room perfect for an office or kids' hangout.
